Offers over £225,000

This bright and airy 3 bedroom detached bungalow is situated in a tranquil location on the edge of the popular village of Fort Augustus and boasts picturesque views to the hills. The attractive property is set within lovely garden grounds and lies within walking distance, via the Caledonian Canal, to the village. The spacious bright lounge with double aspect windows offers an abundance of natural daylight making this the perfect room to sit and relax. The modern kitchen/dining room is well equipped and has ample space for informal dining. Off the kitchen there is a toilet and useful utility room/cloakroom with half glass door leading to the side garden. The bathroom benefits from a large enclosed shower and two of the bedrooms offer fitted wardrobes. Benefiting from oil fired central heating and double glazing, this desirable property is set in a good sized garden and appreciates ample car parking provision.

Situated on the Southern tip of Loch Ness on the Great Glen Way, Fort Augustus is an extremely popular tourist destination with regular boat tours setting off from The Caledonian Canal. This scenic location is within easy reach of the Great Glen Walkway, the Caledonian Canal, Loch Ness, Urquhart Castle and the main road leading from Fort William to the city of Inverness. Local amenities include a bank, post office, chemist, butchers, supermarket, doctors surgery, hardware shop, garage, hotels, restaurants and a 9 hole golf course.

Inverness (approximately 34 miles distant) is an exciting, cosmopolitan city with a thriving local economy reflected in the multitude of amenities and high standard of living. The city boasts a wide choice of shops, restaurants, quality hotels and has a lively cultural and entertainment scene. Inverness Airport provides regular flights to London.
